Pin Machine Acquires GEMPIRE

Pin Machine (PPAI 653591) has entered into an agreement effective immediately to acquire the assets of GEMPIRE (UPIC GEMPIRE) to strengthen its position as a leading supplier of emblematic jewelry.

“By combining our expertise and product offerings, we feel we can continue to deliver excellent quality and great value to our customers,” said Tommy Romero, partner of Pin Machine. “Both companies have been built with an emphasis on customer service and we look forward to this next chapter together.”

GEMPIRE CEO Harvey Mackler, PPAI H. Ted Olson Humanitarian Award recipient and industry leader, will continue to be an integral asset in day-to-day operations. “Pin Machine met all of our requirements- they are a perfect compliment to what we have accomplished for almost 28 years.” - said Mackler.

Existing GEMPIRE customers can expect continued support and access to a broader range of production capabilities under the Pin Machine umbrella.
