ORBUS NAMED 2023 PPAI SILVER PYRAMID AWARD WINNER

Woodridge, IL – January 9, 2023: Orbus Exhibit & Display Group®, North America’s largest producer and manufacturer of visual communications solutions for tradeshow and events, retail environments and corporate interiors, is excited to announce it was recently awarded PPAI’s Silver Pyramid Award for “Supplier Decorating – the Print on Textile” category for the 2023 Pyramid Award Competition.

The PPAI Pyramid Award is an annual competition that honors outstanding achievements of PPAI member companies. Five specific categories recognize excellence in creativity, service, quality, and craftsmanship. These categories are Supplier Decorating, Client Programs, Marketing, Technology, and the Supplier Star.

Orbus’ award submission exemplified its capabilities in custom fabric printing. This trade show booth for end client, Far & Dotter, used a variety of graphic materials and specifically showcased Orbus’ ability to print on sheer fabric. Sheer fabric was used to create a semi-transparent conference room that created privacy and projected the company’s brand throughout the space.

“It’s an honor to receive our second Pyramid Award,” said Gary Keefer, CEO of Orbus. “We are thrilled to demonstrate our extensive print capabilities and be recognized among our peers in the promotional products industry.”
